INDIAN CHILD WELFARE REPRESENTATIVE Jim Miller

Always push yourself to go beyond your best. You don't know what you're capable of doing until you try!! Never Give Up!!

Port Graham's Tribal Youth Program and the Port Graham Native Youth Olympics team would like to thank everyone who came out in support of our efforts. The NYO team was in perfect agreement that this was "the best one ever", referring to the mid-April statewide competition that was held in Anchorage. This year's team was Cyrenna Joseph, Malachi Joseph, Monique Cook, Kobe Norman and Rick Jager. We were very fortunate to have Dannielle Malchoff as our coach and trainer this year, she truly brought out the best in our youth. So are very grateful to the Port Graham Village Council, Port Graham Corporation, Cook Inlet Aquaculture Association, Port Graham Elem./High School and the Alutiiq Museum in Kodiak. And last but not least big thank you to the friends and family in Port Graham who participated in the NYO fundraiser dinners.

Senior, Cyrenna Joseph won her event of stick pull

Rick, Cyrenna, Malachi, and Kobe watching Monique's event.

PORT GRAHAM VILLAGE COUNCIL ANNUAL MEETING

The Village Council's Annual Meeting Port Graham Village Council held their 2014 Annual Meeting on Tuesday, March 31, 2015.

Four (4) council seats were open and were filled by the following returning council members:

- Martin Norman as 2nd Chief
- Debbie McMullen, as Treasurer
- Agnes Miller as Secretary
- Tanya McMullen as a member

As always, during our Annual Meeting's we presented Certificates of Appreciation from the council to various people to show appreciation for all they did and do for Port Graham, a few of which were:

- Staff recognition: Violet Yeaton & Jim Miller
- 2014 Elder: Violet Yeaton & Ephim Kamluck Sr.
- 2014 Hunter: Billy Meganack
- 2014 Jr. Hunter: Zeth Meganack
- Growing Sobriety: Robert McMullen
- EMT of the year: Tanya McMullen
- 2014 Volunteer: Harvey Meganack
- Special Recognition: Skip Richards Extraordinaire

Samantha McMullen, PGVC CHR / Postmaster

Port Graham Village Council would again like to point out these amazing people who should be praised each day for the effort they are making to pass on our traditional values by their every day living and giving.

During the Council's Annual Meeting a great number of certificates were passed out to many deserving people. Port Graham Village Council places an encouraging emphasis on Port Graham's Traditional Values and celebrates people, young and old, who are practicing them.

Violet Yeaton announced that she would be leaving to work in Anchorage. We'd like to thank Violet for her 14 years with Port Graham Village Council. We wish her the very best. We appreciate all her hard work with the environmental program.

ANA GOVERNANCE PROJECT HAPPENINGS

YEAR FOUR - QUARTER THREE – APRIL MAY JUNE EDITION

ADMINISTRATION FOR NATIVE AMERICANS PROJECT COORDINATOR Daryl Kruen

During third quarter, we had the opportunity to work with Kimberly Martus, P.D. to develop a scope of work for the remaining ANA Governance activities. This will include (3) on-site training presentations and materials focused on Tribal Courts and Circle Peacemaking models between June and August.

Working with Ms. Martus will give us the opportunity to review and strengthen our recently developed Tribal Court Strategic Plan by developing short and long term timelines. Review and draft a recommendations report to improve and strengthen our existing Tribal Ordinances and Constitution. Then Ms. Martus, Council Members, and the Tribal Court Committee will also have a chance to prepare a catalogue of funding sources to support future development and the operation of the Circle Peacemaking System.

The following are deliverables that we hope to achieve of this final year of the ANA Governance Project;

- Contractor's written list of achievable items and presentation materials identifying Tribal Court related provisions in Constitution and Ordinances,
- Contractor's presentation materials on Model Tribal Courts and Codes,
- Contractor's presentation materials on: Alaska Tribal Jurisdiction; Tribe's Jurisdictional provisions in Constitution and Ordinances; and specific recommendations on Tribal Court related Ordinances and Constitution,
 - Contractor's presentation materials on: needs assessment; resource inventory/resource map; and Wellness Teams,
 - Contractor's first draft of code followed by a second draft that incorporates recommended revisions and contractor's proposed strategies, tasks, and timelines to implement Code, and
 - Final draft of Tribal Court Establishment Code and presentation materials on model codes.

KIMBERLY MARTUS

These final activities will provide a solid foundation for our own Port Graham Tribal Court System.

Again, I would like to thank the Council Office Staff, Council Members, Committee Members and Community Members that participated in trainings, meetings and informational activities that have made this ANA Governance Project a success, Qu yana!

Sincerely
Daryl J. Kreun
ANA Project Coordinator

Port Graham Tribal Youth Program

The 2015 Tribal Youth Program will be coming to an end the end of June!

In the meantime we want to provide a lot of fun activities for our youth in Port Graham. We have a whole lot of ideas from our last planning session that include; Hiking, picnics, Alutiiq baseball, arts & crafts, spring harvest of local plants, story-telling, etc.

Youth, parents and community members are welcome to attend a planning meeting on Friday, May 29th at 1:00 p.m. at the Community Center Building. We will put together a calendar of events. There will be refreshments and prizes.

You're Invited!!

More Mini-IPads will be presented to youth between the ages of eight and eighteen, only youth who did not already receive one are eligible. These mini I-Pads will be presented to youth who have good attendance (20 participations) at TYP activities as well as Chugachmiut events and language program events.
